“ I am so deeply saddened to learn of Barb’s passing. I knew her in high school and a little in the years after, and will always remember her fondly for her kind and gentle soul, her giving spirit, her poise and grace, her great musical talent. I know she held a deep and meaningful faith, and that she changed many young live for the better as a music teacher. I cannot be present at her memorial service, but I will be thinking of her and John and all her family and friends today. I know she will live in their hearts forever. -- Adam Korbitz MGHS Class of 1981

“ John (and family)
My heart is truly saddened, BUT, joyful for Barb, when I heard she had gone into our Lord’s loving embrace in Heaven.
So many wonderful memories of my getting to know her when she played keyboard for our Visions Praise Team at Immanuel Trinity. It was during one of the social gathering in the basement of the church that I met you, John, and you shared your knowing my brother-in-law Randy; who knew? The Visions team felt so strongly that our music was truly our ministry & she was such a part of that. She left us to finish her education.
We reconnected when I joined the South Shore Chorale and there she was. I also saw you two at Immanuel Trinity when I worshipped there and looked forward to giving you a hug and chatting.
Know you are in my prayers—you both have been since I found out her cancer had returned and you needed surgery last spring. May our precious Lord hold you close and comfort you, John. Prayers will continue. God Loves you so, and so do I.

“ My daughters absolutely adored Mrs. Hanisch and were so saddened to hear this. My oldest Mya enjoyed being her helper the last few years she was teaching. Praying for peace for her family and friends knowing she is with the Lord now.

“ My daughter Aubree had Mrs. Hanisch for music. I remember how patient she was with her learning how to read music. Her passion for music inspired her to pursue music . She continues to take piano lessons and now plays the clarinet. God Bless her family and friends grieving her loss

“ My dearest sympathies to the family of Barbara Hanisch. I'll always remember how polite and kind she was when I waited on her at the pharmacies I worked at. She was friendly and always smiling when she came in and talked to me. Please accept all my prayers for her well being. Sincerely Angel Bell. (Shopko, Pick n save pharmacy. )

“ My favorite memory of Barb was when she was directing one of her wonderful Christmas or Spring programs. Her joy and love of music was infectious! I couldn't help but be brought to tears at it's beauty! Barb was kind, loving, and joyful! She was always wanting to grow as a person and a teacher! I am so blessed to have known her. She had a strong heart and spirit! She is in heaven where she is now singing praises to her Savior where there is no more pain, sickness, or sadness. I am so happy for her!
