“ Dear Lily, Our sincere condolences to you and your family. We have fond memories of our time in Calgary when our paths crossed there. It was so wonderful to get to know you and Romie. We rejoice that Romie is now in Heaven with our Risen Savior and we send love to you and your family. God's blessings. Gail and Mike Esmay

“ St Paul says that to "be with Christ is far better." Romie now knows personally how true that is.
He and I were classmates and good friends at prep school in New Ulm, at Northwestern College and school mates at Seminary.
Condolences to Lily and the family.

“ Dear Lily and family: We rejoice that Prof. Spaude is home in heaven with our risen and ascended Lord, and know that all of you are turning to our loving God and his Word for comfort in this earthly loss.

"Romie" was one of my most favorite professors at MLS. I had him as a teacher for German II my senior year. He made the language come alive for us through German songs and writing and acting out skits (all in German) while he chuckled at us from the back of the classroom. And it was a tremendous blessing to get to know both of you better when Marc became his colleague at our dear school.

The two most frequent adjectives I have seen used to describe Prof. Spaude are "kind" and "gentle". Both are so apt! He had a true servant's heart towards his congregants, his students, and all he met.

One of the things I loved the most about him was his sense of humor and that ever-present twinkle in his eyes. I am quite certain he had to use both each day dealing with all of our high school antics! I can still hear his voice reminding us, "Class. The bell HAS rung!"

Thank you for sharing him with all of us! Much love to you from Saginaw.

Gott aber sei Dank, der uns den Sieg gegeben hat durch unsern HERRN Jesus Christus! 1 Corinthians 15:57

“ I always admired Professor Spaude for his fun and caring personality and his Christian example in life. You let me share your home on many weekends at MLS. There are so many wonderful memories from then. Cathy never got to be my roommate in the dorm but that kind of made up for it. :-) Such a loving family and I now rejoice with you that he is in heaven with our Savior and singing with the angels.

“ My love and sympathy to the Spaude family. I have fond memories of my childhood pastor, growing in faith under his instruction at Emanuel, Flint. Pastor Spaude confirmed me, and then later on was my professor at MLS. I am grateful that I enjoyed so many good times with Cathy in the Spaude home. We rejoice in Pastor Spaude's faith and are thankful for his service to his Savior.
