“ I have nothing but fond memories of Pat. She and Bruce were always so kind and friendly to the childhood pals of their children, even though we were loud and immature to a fault. So many times and for so many years I was in their home visiting Mike (and Joe, John, and Amy), and I don't recall a single foul moment. It was nothing but smiles, warmth, generosity, laughter, and a true sense of feeling welcome there. As I now think back, a load of Christmas-time memories are flooding in, too... with lots of music and cookies and cider. She was a dear woman, and she will be missed.

“ Great fond memories! Simply put, she was “Mom” to every kid that walked through the door at the Seibel House! You are missed!
