“ Lowell,
I'm so sorry to hear of Alice's passing. I've thought of you 2 often over the months since I seen you guys at Menards. I was worried about her then, but she never showed anything but courage and determination. This lady was a card for sure and what a wonderful joy of dynamite she was! I enjoyed us bantering back and forth. We would get to laughing, I'm smiling now as I right this. She became everyone's grandma, and she loved being that person.

Alice was my Godmother. Never did she ever miss a birthday..nor my second wedding when she called me and said, "Well Katherine Joy..blow me over with a feather!" She was the absolute best..and always had such an amazing sense of humor! Alice was the famiy patriarch. The one that knew all things family and one could ask her anything..and she knew it. She took Dad and I out to the different cemeteries and to the family plots, telling us all the stories she knew..Took Dad and I out to my mom's old homestead..telling us stories about playing in her old pink bedroom. What an amazing lady I got to call my Godmother. She sure will be missed! <3 Thoughts and hugs go out to my cousins Randy and Bryant; along with the rest of the family. <3

“ I got to know Alice later in life for the past seven years or so through her neighbors. I loved stopping by to talk to her (and Lowell). She loved to razz me a little and that was one of my favorite parts about her. I am sad that she is gone, but we all know that her good soul will live on forever in heaven. Rest in peace, Alice. You made a friend in me.

“ We have many fond memories of Alice and the friendship she had with our Mother, Mary Hess. Always willing to dress up for Halloween, she also played 'Father of the Bride' for our parents wedding anniversary party. Such a fun wonderful lady!

“ Such a joy Alice brought to our lives over many years. Memories with Bill and Edna Beyer at the Hickory Grove Turkey Ranch, the laughter, and more laughter...the food and more food...the parties and cocktails. Alice has touched all of our lives with the generosity of gatherings and staying in contact for decades. She will be missed tremendously. The Suzanne (Beyer) Lemke family.
