

Ann Blumenfeld

September 23, 1919 - November 24, 2019

Ann Blumenfeld, 100, of Beverly Hills, CA, formerly of Fond du Lac, passed away on Sunday, November 24, 2019.

She was born in Fond du Lac on September 23, 1919, the daughter of Julius and Charna Smith. On January 19, 1947, she married Alex Blumenfeld in Fond du Lac. Together they ran Alex Blumenfeld's Army Navy Surplus until they retired in 1988.

After Alex's death in 2002, she moved to Beverly Hills to be closer to her girls and grandson. Ann lived life to the fullest. Her family was everything to her. Everyone loved this amazing woman.

Ann is survived by her two daughters, Beverly Weissman (Barry) of Beverly Hills, CA, Judith Baloff (Peter) of Miami, FL and her grandson, Sam Baloff (Halle) of Studio City, CA. She is further survived by her very special nephew, Lowell Louis (Gaye) and numerous nieces and nephews.

FUNERAL: Private funeral services were held on Friday, November 29, 2019, at the Kurki-Mach Funeral Chapel & Crematory. Burial was in Rienzi Cemetery, Fond du Lac.

Cemetery Details

Rienzi Cemetery

Fond du Lac, WI

Tribute Wall

CA

“ I remember Ann and Alex at the shop on Main Street across from The Village Cobbler(my mom and dad). They were always fun to visit and share a laugh. May she rest in peace, and may comfort come to her two daughters and their families.

Catherine Abler - December 12, 2019 at 08:42 AM

RB

“ When I was a young man I was a police patrol officer often walking Beat 2 when Alex and Ann had the Army Navy Store on Main Street both Ann and Alex always welcomed me into their store both winter and summer.

*Now retired,
Det. Richard Burger*

May she now REST IN PEACE

richard Burger - December 07, 2019 at 05:50 PM