“ Betty was my best friend...she took very good care of my mom. We did many trips to Milwaukee when I had surgery on both ankles....she adopted my children without the paper work and myself as a friend we joked and went to the mexican restaurant including the flood the last time I spoke to her she said "well Lin guess we will have to paddle a canoe to the restaurant" our condolences to all her children I will miss her very much.....as she definitely was my sole mate. BETTY..I LOVE YOU The Maurice family especially Linda
