

Blanche M. Eiden

October 31, 1922 - December 26, 2009

Blanche M. Eiden was called to her eternal reward on December 22, 2009. Most recently, she resided at Walnut Grove Assisted Living facility, Fond du Lac. She was born on October 31, 1922, in St. Louis, Missouri, a daughter of Edward J. and Blanche M. Coleman Lagendorf. In April 1945, she married Kenneth W. Eiden, Sr., and together they had four children: Kenneth Jr., Karlene, Thomas, and James. She is survived by her son, Kenneth W. Eiden, Jr., his wife Hilde, and their children: Kenneth III and his wife Holly, Kevin and his wife Jennifer, Nicole and her husband Rob, and seven great-grandchildren; her son-in-law, Daniel Smith and his children: Benjamin, Andrew, and Rebekah; her son, Thomas; and her son, James and his wife Amy, and their children: Hunter and Grant. She was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth Sr., her daughter, Karlene Smith, her parents, three sisters, and one brother. A Liturgy of the Word will be at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, December 26, 2009, at the Chapel of the Risen Christ, Calvary Cemetery, 686 Fond du Lac Avenue, Fond du Lac, with Deacon Larry Hughes officiating. The visitation will be on Saturday at the Chapel of the Risen Christ, Calvary Cemetery, from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service. In lieu of flowers, please direct memorials to The American Heart Association. May she rest in eternal peace.

“ Ken,
My heart goes out to you and your family on the passing of your mom. Having just lost my dad and mother-in-law all in one week makes me appreciate the sense of loss that you are going through. This is especially tough at Christmas. May your mother rest in eternal peace with God and may your family be consoled by such.

“ Ken,
Please accept my condolences on the death of your mother. The loss of a parent, no matter when it occurs is a life altering event. Know that you and your family will be in my prayers.
