“ Sara, Shawn, Ethan and Hudson,
My heart is just breaking for you all. Caden was so loved by so many at FLC staff and students alike. We are so lucky to have been a part of his life. Caden, I will miss your deep belly laugh, greeting you every morning at “bu-bu-bu” breakfast, singing your favorite songs with you when your teachers had already done so 100 times that day already, and your excitement when the busses arrived! You always reached out your hand to walk with me whenever I saw you in the hall. I imagine that God sent his angel bus to pick you up and bring you to heaven and I’m sure you are surrounded by angels singing you all your favorite songs and you are singing right along with them!
“Twinkle twinkle little star, what a special angel you are!!” All my love,
Renee Schnell

“ My favorite thing about Caden is when he would see me he would come to me and want me to tickle or rub his arms lightly. He would do his deep belly laugh and hold out his arms for more ❤️He also loved when we would sing. He will forever hold a special place in my heart.

Caden was a treasure to us all at Friendship Learning Center and I am so very sorry for your loss. We are blessed for the time he was with us and how at such a young age, he touched so many lives in our learning community.
