“ My mom, Florence Ringhand, counted Carol as one of her very best friends, even though my mom was almost 20 years older. They went through LPN school together and worked together on OB for many years. They even traveled together. But what I recall them doing together the most was laugh and enjoy each others company. Carol was a support to my mom as she aged and to our family when my mom passed. It seems to me their connection endures as Jan. 22 is also my moms birthday. Our prayers to your family.

“ I have so many beautiful blessed memories of my gram. From playing rummy, to watching movies together. Gram loved watching Rocky movies. Going out to eat and shopping. We used to massage each other feet, watch Wheel of Fortune and I would pretend to flip the letters like Vanna.

She made the best breakfast and the best chili, fudge, and pork chops with gravy. She always listened to me, she knew exactly what clothes and things I liked, she would surprise me and get the perfect outfits or food I love, never judged me, always kept it real with me, showed me so much love and support, never gave up on me and I just loved being around her. She was my peace. She made life so much better 💖 she will be so deeply missed and so loved forever.

Praying for our family during this difficult time. Only Jesus can heal, comfort, and give us strength to get through this. HE is near to the broken hearted. Big hugs to all my family 💖💖
