“ Bill & Dan- sorry for the loss of your Father. There are really no words that take the pain away, however letting go and cherrishing your many memories is what get you through your hardest times. Remember our loved ones expect us to move on in our lives and not dwell on the saddness of their passing. Look to the Lord when you are struggling to keep it together. This is not good bye this is Till we meet again! You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. With Sympathy, Sue and James Nett and Girls
