“ Lump, You were a huge part of my adolescence. Humor helps all stages in life and you could always make me smile. I'll never forget your sweetness and thoughtfulness. Thank you for the beautiful ducklings (Harold and Gertrude) that you gave me that Easter. Say hello to them for me. I hope heaven is more fun than they made it sound in catechism. :)

“ Lumby was one of my best friends when were young. 41 years ago I had my wisdom teeth removed and he was sitting at my bedside with a rose waiting for me to wake up. Now you may think think this is an odd story, but his kindness and concern was never forgotten. I have not seen him for years so to you dear loved ones you have my sympathy.

“ stacy and bob' you do not know me but i have known your dad for over 40yrs. he will be missed by all that knew him and to those that did not they really missed out on a great man. he cared so much for aunt millie when uncle ray passed, your grandma alice and millie would come in by me and i had your dads # and he always told me to be ther guardian angel while he was doing his thing but to call him if they needed him. God really needed a great musician to call dan for help so soon.when God calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange. hold on to your memories and let them guide you. take comfort that those who we love we will be reunited in eternity. God bless, cheryl “ Lumpy will be one of those people I'll always remember and I am so grateful to have known him. More than his musical talent, Lumpy was a great human being and a dear friend. Will see you again someday ?

“ Can't believe how we are saying good bye way too soon. Adolescence is a tough town. It seems like a long time ago right now. If we're lucky, we have someone beside us to help us through it. For me it was the "Lumpster". I hope I was always there for him when he needed me.
After more than 20 years, in the early '90's, you let me be a part of one of your great bands, the Heaters. I feel honored, thank you, Dan.
Wherever you are I am sure there are great laughs and fabulous music from a warm, loving, talented man.
Peace, Love, Denny
