“ Dave was one of the first friends that Mike introduced me to and later became Best Man at our Wedding. Over the years, he never ceased to amaze me. He was an awesome electrician. His career took him to many states, but he never forgot his family and friends in Wisconsin. Once you became a friend with Dave, it was a forever thing. Just when you were thinking about him, he would pop up at your house or give you a call. Many memories from the past include camping, hunting, boating, pig roasts, and parties. He even took us on a flight, that he was the pilot of. I won't lie, I was scared. The last time he made a surprise visit at our house, he was truly happy. He was in such a wonderful place in his life. He was so proud of his children and grandchildren. He loved his job; he found his soul mate and generously gave back to veterans in need of housing, as well as taking in animals who were displaced. He was really smart, but he never made fun of me when I said something dumb. He just gave me that grin, that only he could give. Dave, when I reach the pearly gates of Heaven, please let me in.
