“ Faith, We were out of town last week and I was shocked to see that Dennis had passed while catching up on local news. I and Dennis had gone to Egypt together a few years ago for work and at the time had a couple of beers. I had not kept in contact after he left G&L, only twice I believe had I seen him since. I am so sorry to hear of your loss. If I can be of any help let me know.

“ My sympathies to all the family. Dennis was one of my favorite customers at G & L Credit Union. I enjoyed his sense of humor, even during his illness. He always tried to see we had the famous stew on St. Patrick's Day, making a special delivery for us. I know he will be missed by many. Louise Keifenheim, former teller at Credit Union One.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I can only imagine the pain you must be feeling right now. Tony, I know that I haven't been a very good friend to you, but Kim and I are praying for you and your family. Remember, Jesus has a beautiful place reserved for your dad and one day, you'll be there with him again. Love, sincerely-Dave, Kim, Eli, & Isaiah.

“ I have nothing but fun memories of "Dinger"... He definitely held a special place in my heart when we were young. I am so very sad to hear of his early passing. I am unable to be with all of you on Sunday, due to the fact that I am scheduled to work this weekend. My thoughts will be with all of you. I will never forget that wonderful smile of his. Love, Susie

“ Dear Faith, My deepest and heartfelt sympathy to you and your family. As God promises, and we also trust in His promises, Dennis now enjoys the glory of eternal life. Psalm 73:24 “You will guide me with Your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.” My Pastor at Luther Memorial Church, (Dave Naumann), whom I have mentioned to you before, has helped me through my grief by reminding me of a couple Bible passages, which have given me His daily strength and courage, as I too grieve with you. I have found this to be one of my favorites, as I feel the word “ransomed” couldn't be a better descriptive word for anyone who gets diagnosed with cancer: Isaiah 55:11 "So the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with singing, with everlasting joy on their heads. They shall obtain joy and gladness; sorrow and sighing shall flee away. May God grant you His Strength, today and everyday as you deal with the grief of your temporary separation. Faith, you, as well as the family, are in my prayers. God bless you all. Love, Karen
