I Will Not Remember
When Heaven stands before me
And I am home at last,
I will not remember
The worries of the past;
I will not be aware of all
The trials in this life,
The many times I shed some tears,
The troubles and the strife,
For I will have before me
All the glories spread above.
The meaning of it all will be Quite softened by His love.
In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to Church of Peace or Fond du Lac Lutheran Home.

“ Bonnie & family, I did not realize who your mother was until I read her obituary. I am so sorry for your loss. Your parents were residents at Ashbury where my Grandmother lived. Your Mom always said "Hi". You have my sincere sympathy, and my God give you strength, comfort, and love. Cathy Bell

“ Your Mom was a wonderful person and very talented at crocheting. She made some angels for me use on the tree in the lobby at the Holiday Bazaar at Church of Peace. We sold them after the bazaar and donated the money to the Bazaar, I bought one of them, what a wonderful keepsake, as I will think of her each Christmas when I put up my tree. She will be missed.
