“ I worked with Dolores for many years in the Fond du Lac School District and we became great friends and shared many memories. I remember all the people she visited when they were in nursing homes and assisted living. We met often in Princeton for lunch and an afternoon visit.

I will miss her very much.

“ I have very fond memories of Dolores. I use to call her Dody as a child. Her and Aunt Margaret would come to spend Christmas with my family. My Mom and Dolores were cousins. My Grandmother and her father were siblings. Anyways I couldn't wait for them to arrive, they always arrived late at night. So it was a special treat to be able to stay up late.

Dolores and I continue to exchange Christmas gifts all these years. My theme for her was anything cardinals. I'd always try to find something that had cardinals. When I married she added my husband. When we had children she added them to her Christmas list, then their spouses and then the grandkids. And every gift was just perfect for them. Christmas just won't be the same without Dolores.
