

Dorothy C. Schuch

March 15, 1920 - December 16, 2008

“Blessed are the merciful for they shall find mercy” Dorothy C. (Dettmann) Schuch, 88, passed away peacefully at home at Prairie Gardens Assisted Living, Sun Prairie, died Tuesday, December 16, 2008. She was born on March 15, 1920, in Valders, a daughter of Ernest G. and Amy M. Snowden Phipps. Dorothy attended Lakeland College, St. Agnes School of Nursing and Prospect Hall Secretarial School. On July 25, 1942, she married Dr. Ralph W. Dettmann. Ralph passed away on September 25, 1966. On August 12, 1975, she married Harold P. Schuch. She is survived by three children: Dan Dettmann of Green Bay, Jane (Thomas) Henderson of Sun Prairie, Mary Beth (Roy) Swenson of Marshall; three grandchildren: Daniel (Tracy) Henderson of Marshall, Amy (Blake) Edwards of Phillips, Paul Swenson of Milton; four great-grandchildren: Zachary Henderson, Jacob Henderson, Morgan Edwards, Austin Edwards; a niece and nephew: Julie Joyce and James Joyce; Paul’s fiancée, Brenda Stronach; and a dear family friend, Joyce Palladino of Green Bay. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husbands, Ralph and Harold; a sister, Thelma Joyce, and a niece, Kathy Joyce. The love, strength, and mercy of Dorothy was most profoundly demonstrated as sole caregiver to her husband and mother during their extended illnesses. At Dorothy’s request, there will be no visitation. A private funeral service will take place at Mach Funeral Chapel & Crematory with Pastor Paul of Marshall officiating. Memorials may be made to Hospice Care Inc of Madison. A special thanks goes to the loving staff at Prairie Gardens who took Dorothy into their family for the past two years.

“ Dan: I try to read the Fondy Reporter everyday, and just saw where your mother passed away. I'm so sorry for your loss. I have many memories of going over to your house and getting 'treats' from your mom. Hope things are going good for you. Peanuts
