“ sandy iam so sorry to have read about your mom. I just saw it first today in the action. I did not know she was in a home; I feel real bad about not knowing that. she was so good about going to see her mother everyday more than once on some days. I did not even realize how long it has been since I saw her. I liked her a lot and I wish I had not let the last few years slip by without not wondering where she was. we had some real good times and conversations together. she was special and talked of scott and toni often. we lived next door to each other on forest avenue. I think you may have even babysat my kids. may God Bless your family and I know he will take good care of your mom!
