

Elaine L. Kollman

February 3, 1932 - May 9, 2016

Elaine L. Kollman, 84, of Fond du Lac, died Monday, May 9, 2016, at her home. She was born on February 3, 1932, a daughter of Arthur and Lillie Franke Kollmann. Elaine was baptized on February 21, 1932, at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Oakfield, and confirmed on March 30, 1947, at St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, Lomira. Elaine worked at Brooke Industries, retiring in 2013, after 36 years of service. She always had a smile for everyone and never forgot to say please and thank you. She enjoyed her friends at Brooke Industries, St. Agnes Adult Day Services, and most of all, her family at the ARC Home on Maria Lane, Fond du Lac. She is survived by a brother, Gene (Sharon) Kollman of Oakfield, a sister-in-law, Bernice Kollmann of Plankinton, South Dakota; nieces: Penny (Richard) Escott and Pam (Jody) Grahl; a nephew, Ron (Kim) Kollmann; a special niece, Hope Boivin; eight great nieces and nephews: Ashley (Damian) Farr, Justin Grahl, Kevin (Holli) Boivin, Dawn (Shawn) Balsitis, David Kollman, Joe Kollman, Kyle Sauvage, and Katie (Stephen) Tong. She was preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Laverne (Wesley) Priest; a brother, Ronald Kollman; and a nephew, Randy Kollmann. Elaine's family extends special thanks to Pennie Filipiak, and the staff at the ARC home, as well as the ARC, for the tremendous care given to Elaine and the special attention to her to make her final days a comfort. Thank you also to St. Agnes Hospice for their special care in Elaine's final months.
