

Elmer O. Wohler

July 24, 1921 - July 8, 2015

Elmer O. Wohler, 93, formerly of Eldorado, passed away on Wednesday, July 8, 2015, at Grancare Nursing and Rehabilitation. He was born on July 24, 1921, in the Town of Eldorado, a son of Otto and Rose Frederick Wohler. On June 7, 1947, he married Mildred "Millie" L. Boyke at Church of Peace with the late Rev. Karl Koehler officiating. Together he and Millie owned and operated a dairy farm in the Town of Eldorado for more than 50 years. He drove truck for the Town of Eldorado. Elmer was a member of Salem United Methodist Church. He and Millie enjoyed square dancing with the Waupun Prison City Square Dance Club and the Lakeside Twirlers Square Dance Club. Elmer was a volunteer with Meals on Wheels and enjoyed making deliveries. He was an avid accordion player and played with the Harmonica Rascals. He always enjoyed carpentry, fixing things and making homemade toys. He was awarded the "Distinguished Senior Citizen" at the Fond du Lac County Fair. Elmer was a loving, sweet, kind, and caring father, husband, and friend. He is survived by three daughters: Janet (Franklin) Johnson of Eldorado, Sandra (Kenneth) Stephany of New Holstein, and Kathryn (Edward) Montsma of Lamartine; eight grandchildren: Jeffrey (Elizabeth) Johnson, Kimberly (Joey) Zolezzi, Timothy (Leah) Johnson, Ryan, Megan, and Kyle Stephany, Allison and Kalen Montsma; eight great-grandchildren: McKayla, Brynn, Cambree Johnson, Marissa, Hayden, Greyson Johnson, and Anthony and Isabella Zolezzi; and a sister-in-law, Marion Wohler. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Millie, on July 6, 2014; and a brother, Eldon Wohler. The funeral service will be held at 6:00 p.m. on Sunday, July 12, 2015, at Mach Funeral Chapel & Crematory, 31 East Division Street, Fond du Lac, with Rev. Bill Beaton officiating. The visitation will be on Sunday at Mach Funeral Chapel & Crematory from 4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. Private family entombment will be in the Shrine of Rest Mausoleum at Ledgeview Memorial Park. The family would like to thank St. Agnes Hospice and the staff at Grancare for all their compassion shown to Elmer and his family.
