“ Emma Jane and I were classmates at Ursuline Academy from 1937 to 1941. We were all like sisters.....a very happy time of my life. I spent some time with her several years ago while we were visiting from North Carolina. We always chatted when she would spend time with Rose Rita in St. Louis. Be happy that she is free of pain now....she had a good long life. Hugs for all of you Agnes Neal

“ Our entire Hughes family loved Emma Jane, our Mom's friend since childhood. Through their stories, we learned about them growing up. We loved seeing her when she visited St. Louis. She called me every year to catch up on how I was doing and how the family was doing. She had a great memory and was smart, kind and laughed easily. I had just had a long conversation with her in October. We feel blessed to have had her in our lives.

“ E.J. was a wonderful lady. I accompanied my sister (who isn't able to speak) to visit this lovely lady often & she was so interesting telling about her family & her life. She treasured her friends & family. Such a caring person. We hadn't heard she moved from her home.

“ Enjoyed talking with Emma Jane every year. She always asked about my kids and would talk about the great time she had at a Cardinal game with my daughter Kari. The sweetest lady you would ever meet, and my godmother. One of my prized possessions is a Milwaukee Braves baseball from the 50's that she gave me as a birthday present back then. She will be missed, but pleasantly remembered.

“ I loved her as much as my own mom. Mike and Dick were like brothers to me. I share in your loss. Over the years, no trip to FDL was complete without spending time with Emma Jane. She was a precious person who touched my life as much as anyone.
