“ My sincerest sympathies to John and Karen Willis and family. I remember many times when I was younger going to Aunt Kathy's house and seeing "Grandma" Erica there. I remember how kind and sweet she was. I've thought about your family so many times in the past months with everything from Matt's death to the Extreme House, it just all reminded me of how long Aunt Kathy's been gone and how much I miss her. I hope that she and Erica are playing cards in heaven together now. God Bless all of you.
