

Ervin E. Dehring

February 29, 1924 - June 10, 2010

Ervin E. Dehring, 86, a resident of Touchstone Living Center, died Thursday, June 10, 2010. He was born on February 29, 1924, in Oakfield, a son of George E. and Meta M. Paul Dehring. Erv was a drill press operator for BCI Burke Company for many years. Following retirement, he volunteered at Broken Bread. He was a member of St. Peter's Ev. Lutheran Church, Fond du Lac. Erv is survived by two daughters: Debbie Dehring of Fond du Lac, and Susie (John) Immel of Antigo; two grandchildren: Kalei and Jacob Immel; two brothers and a sister: Marvin (Gerry) Dehring of Eldorado, Alvin (Barbara) Dehring of Fond du Lac, and Marlene (John) James of Fond du Lac; three nieces: Vicki (Donald) Hackbarth of Fond du Lac, Dawn Dehring of Texas, and Margie (Robert) Miller of Fond du Lac; and two nephews: Peter (Kathy) James of Fond du Lac, and Todd Dehring of Oshkosh. He was preceded in death by his parents; and a brother, Darvin (Doris) Dehring. A private service will be held at Mach Funeral Chapel & Crematory, 31 E. Division Street, Fond du Lac, with Jon N. Cox officiating and burial will take place in Rosendale Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

CB

“ Sorry to hear about Erv's passing my prayers are with the family.

Co-Worker BCI Burk - June 14, 2010 at 05:51 PM