“ We will miss you grandma..... You wanted everyone to be with their family on Easter..... Well you made that happen! Everyone's (family)was together and that was shared with you! Gods plans is Great.... He is always there to give us strength,looking after us day after day. God gives us challenges along the way and we never know what is next....we should always remember he will be at our side to help us through the challenges of life.... So grandma God's plan guided you through many years of challenges and got you through them right to the very end...then he took you away to your eternal home with him....what a GREAT plan and a Blessed Easter it was! HAPPY EASTER So (family's)start your day knowing your never alone.God is there at your side making you strong along the way right to the very end. God GREAT plan will come true for us to! What a Blessing that will be!
