“ As neighbors of Freddie and Elvira for a number of years we experienced what it was to be loved by them. One experience I can think of happened after one of our "beloved" cottonwoods came down on our deck. Next Saturday morning early I am out dismantling the deck and I hear "it really made a mess Rex, eh"?. Freddie, carrying 2 large pry bars and ready to go to work and he called his son who showed up later to help. How many 80 something year old guys are always trying to help like that? I will always remember him for his eternal optimism, his great advice, his desire to save everything ("yea I might be able to use that") his love for a good deal and just his genuine love for all of us. Best of all he loved Jesus and was amazed that He died for little old Fred. We will miss you Fred. Sorry we can't be there to celebrate your amazing life.

Well done Fred!

We are fairly new to Fond du Lac. At church Fred was always like we were long lost friends. I really enjoyed his acceptance, friendliness, and his greetings. Rest in Peace, Friend.
