“ She was a wonderful friend, I grew up in South Milwaukee and meet her through the Keeler family. We all helped each other with whatever we needed. She always expressed her love for her family and how proud she was. Songs will remind me of her and I pray to see her again in heaven. My deepest condolences to her family and friends.

“ Gayane grew up with my daughter Michelle and many other girls in the neighborhood. She was a sweet girl who came to our house and visited many times. They all went to school together. Laughter and fun times we all shared. So sad to hear her life is over. Way too young. We will miss you Gayane and God has taken you back home. Thank you for being in our lives and sharing your kind heart with us. Till we meet again. Miss and Love you, Diane Mueller
