“ For many years we were neighbors on Polk and Minnesota Streets. Our kids grew up together. The great times. The treasured memories. Who could ever forget the amazing block parties with Corney Olson letting us block off our block for a day of sheer fun. The camping trips to Lake of the Woods. The great friends and and friendships. We were so blessed to have those years with you George, Renee and boys. It almost seems like it just went by us all far too quickly. One by one we all left the block and sadly we have lost many of the team. I would give anything to relive those glorious days with all of our neighbors. The first memory of us all together was when we first moved in and you all came over and invited is to a party happening right that minute. Jerry was in his bathrobe and said sure, I'd love to come over and arrived in his brown bathrobe. Well George did say "come as you are". Can any of the old neighbors remember the name of the all man band of this crazy bunch? I really need to pull the photo albums out. My heart breaks for you Renee and sons. The gates of Heaven have opened once again and welcomed home it's newest angel. A great husband, loving father, great band member and cherished friend. Our Deepest Sympathy to you all. thanks for the Memories. Truly Treasures.
