

Gerald "Jerry" H. Gruenhagen

January 12, 2025

Gerald "Jerry" H. Gruenhagen passed away peacefully on January 12, 2025. He was born in 1937, the son of Henry and Elfrieda Gruenhagen in West Bend, Wisconsin. He attended St. John's Lutheran Grade School and West Bend High School. He graduated from Milwaukee School of Engineering in 1961 and worked his entire career at Giddings and Lewis in Fond du Lac as a Test Engineer and Field Service Engineer. Jerry was a warm and generous person who had many interests including collecting, dancing, and following sports.

Jerry is survived by his brother Rich and his wife Sandy, three nieces Kelly, Deana, and Lindsey, and three great nephews.

A Celebration of his Life will be held on Friday, January 17, 2025, at 11:00 AM at Faith Lutheran Church, 55 Prairie Road, Fond du Lac, with visitation beginning at 10:00 AM. Celebration lunch to follow at noon. Burial to take place at Ledgeview Memorial Park. Please consider donating to the non-profit of your choice in memory of Jerry. He will be dearly missed but forever remembered in our hearts.

“ Many years ago when I lived in the FDL area, I belonged to the same service organization as Jerry. I loved his laugh! He was quick-witted, kind, gentle, and generous. I hope he's dancing, collecting, and seeing why history played out the way it did.
