

Harold "Duane" D. Piper

May 25, 1937 - June 25, 2015

Harold "Duane" D. Piper, 78, of Fond du Lac, died Thursday, June 25, 2015, at St. Agnes Hospital. He was born on May 25, 1937, in Flemington, Missouri, a son of Harold W. and Laura A. Allison Piper. Duane served with the United States Army Reserves. On June 19, 1993, he married Karen A. (Smestad) Miller in Fond du Lac. Duane was an ink technician with Sun Chemical in Menomonee Falls. After his retirement from Sun Chemical, he worked at the Little Farmer for over ten years. He was a member of Salem United Methodist Church, an excellent woodworker, and a "stand-up guy". He is survived by his wife, Karen; a daughter, Missy (Ryan) Propper of West Bend; a stepdaughter, Kori (Chris) Pelley of Portland, Maine; four grandchildren: Greta, Griffin, Nolan, and Kira; a sister, Shirley (Jerry) Emanuel of St. Louis, Missouri; two brothers: Don (Marilyn) Piper of Georgetown, Texas, and Gaylord (Lorna) Piper of Flemington, Missouri; and a sister-in-law, Sharon Piper of Humansville, Missouri. He was preceded in death by his parents; first wife, Mary Griffin Piper; and a brother, Carroll Piper. At Harold's request, there will be no visitation or service locally. Graveside inurnment service will be held at a later date at Salem Cemetery, Cliquot, Missouri. Memorials may be directed to the Fond du Lac Humane Society or Salem United Methodist Church.

“ I was very saddened to hear of Duane's passing. He and I worked together at Sun for several years before his retirement. I always enjoyed his little "Duane-isms" and we laughed at lot when we conversed. Duane will be missed by many, but hardly forgotten.
