“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. Because it is the holiday season it makes it just a little bit tougher to deal with the loss, but through the grace of God, you will. It has been 6 years, almost to the day, since we lost my Dad, and taking the time as a family to reminisce about him, (and my Mom), helped us through the holidays, and it still does. Be together, talk, reminisce, laugh, cry, and celebrate her life and all that she brought to your family and this world. Keep in mind that she no longer is in pain, and sits in the light of the Lord...and is at peace.
