“ Words cannot express how deeply sorry i am. My thoughts and prayers go out to Jim's family and friends. Jim was very special to me. And although we have not talked or seen each other in quite some time, he has left me with so many memories that I will always cherish. A part of him will always be part of me.

“ Jimmy, you certainly have left us way too soon, but you have certainly left us with so many great memories. That was the thing about you, whether it was taking the motorcycles for a ride, snowmobiling, sturgeon spearing, hunting, camping, snowboarding, skateboarding, shooting pool, or just hanging out and making us laugh, you made your self available to so many of us.

“ In hearing of Jim's passing my heart sank. I had the pleasure of calling Jim my husband. We shared many memories together and he taught me so much. If you were to ask him he would tell you he taught me everything I know. He had this infectious laugh, and wonderful smile. When he was thinking he always bit his lower lip. He had the biggest hands and a big heart; he would help a friend at the drop of a hat. He knew everyone, even though he would sometimes forget their names, and everyone knew him. I am deeply saddened by his loss but I know that if he were here right now he would tell me "dont worry everything will be fine." I will remember Jim always for he has a special place in my heart and in my memories forever.
