

Janice Elsinger

February 15, 1935 - June 23, 2024

Janice Elsinger, 89, passed away Sunday, June 23, 2024 at Harbor Haven Health and Rehabilitation Center.

Janice was born on February 15, 1935, to Sylvester “Shorty” and Edith (McChain) Schorr, in Fond du Lac, the youngest of 3 daughters. She married Zeno Elsinger on October 15, 1983, at St John’s Church in Woodhull.

Janice and Zeno worked together in his company, Elsinger Dairy Products for many years. She was the Bookkeeper in the administrative offices of Holy Family Parish in Fond du Lac until August 2023 and received the St Juan Diego award for special services to the parish.

Together with her sister, Joan, Janice spent many years as a greeter before the 11:00AM Mass at Sacred Heart Church. They were a familiar and welcome duo and were well known and loved by the parishioners. Janice lost her sister Joan last year on December 8.

Janice loved animals, and had several beloved dogs and cats, and her final pet was a Standard Poodle named Sylvie.

Janice and Zeno had no children, but she is survived and remembered lovingly by nephews and nieces from her two sisters: Tim Janis (Jill Damm) of Fond du Lac, Tina (Patrick) McMenamin of Sydney, Australia, John (Sandra) Taylor of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, Mark (Sydney) Taylor of Eureka, California, and Tracy (Terry) Weber of Adell, Wisconsin.

Special thanks to the incredible staff at Harbor Haven, who looked after her for the last several weeks of her life.

A funeral Mass will be said for Janice at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, 200 South Peters Avenue, Fond du Lac, on Wednesday, July 17, 2024 at 11:00 AM, with visitation beforehand at 10:00 AM.

A Committal Ceremony will be held on August 10, 2024 at Calvary Cemetery in the chapel, to reunite Janice with her beloved husband, sisters and brothers-in-law in the mausoleum. Cremation has taken place.
