Jason Ray Seaton, born August 19, 1977, passed away suddenly on October 16, 2022.

In his passing he is preceded by and will join his father, Roy Seaton. Jason is survived by his two children: Nolan and Jadelynn, his mom Barb Seaton, his brother: Scott Carlson, Shannon Carlson, Travis (Anna) Seaton, his sister Sammie Cruckson, nephews, niece, aunts, uncles and other family and friends.

Jason mostly employed his talents in the construction trades, many of those years as a roofer. He had a quiet disposition and enjoyed leisurely pursuits, especially the outdoors. He had a great sense of humor, a kind and genuine heart! He will be greatly missed and will leave a spot in our hearts unfilled. Cremation to take place.

“*Sending love and prayers to the family!
The time that Jason spent with our family will always be a special memory. He loved to laugh and joke around, but most notably, he had such a good heart.
“Go rest high on that mountain, son your work on earth is done.”*

“ Oh Jay Ray. So many memories since we were little boys trying to beat the crap out of each other to being room mates roofing for Lakewood in the U.P. (for years) The shit we use to pull was well, just ridiculous (at times). Jason was a good guy at heart and a good friend. I'll always cherish our memories that help make me into a man. You will be missed. Say hi to Roy from Wicked.

“ Ah - Dar Bean, man - it was never supposed to turn out like this, huh? We were friends and then more for a bit and then friends again. I always wanted you to be okay and happy. You leave behind a lot of really heartbroken people that love you more than you realized. Maybe more than they told you at times. I pray you've found peace. I'll keep taking care of our boy always. I know you loved him. I always made sure he knew that and understood. I'll help look out for Jadders and support her as she processes losing you. Same with your mom. You had a good heart and were a really good person at your core. Everything you gave to each of us in your life that was good will stay with us forever. You take with you the love that everyone gave you. I hope you can feel it now.

“ I miss you bro. I have missed you. I was just waiting for you to join me on my journey. I have so many memories of you. All the way back to that time we meet, by bombing each other with snow balls. That was probably 35 years ago. I'm really glad I got to see you one last time. Tell Roy I say hi and miss you. Take care Jason. I hope you found peace now. At least you don't have to fight the demons of addiction anymore.
