“ Jeanne was always so kind. I loved picking her up for a coffee date. She had so much information on the history of her family, whom she loved. Her faith was strong too. There was always so much to talk about - and I was a willing listener! She was a great story teller. I sure miss our times together.

“ Being neighbors on Esterbrook Road in Fond du Lac, I and my family were very close with Jean, Bruce and their children. Many fond memories of those days back in the 70's and 80's still linger in my mind as I feel sadden by the loss of some of the best friends I ever had or will ever have. To God be the glory as he welcomes home a true and faithful servant,

“ Suzy, Trish, and Mike; Brenda and I were saddened to hear of your mom’s passing. We fondly remember your Mom during the holidays when we would gather at Grandma’s house and always looked forward to her Christmas newsletter to “catch up” on what you were all up to. May fond memories help ease your pain during this sorrowful time.
