“ My sympathies on the passing of Joann. I taught with her in Racine during my first years in the ministry and I remember attending her wedding. So much has changed, but what never changes is God's love for His children. Joann is with Him now, and I look forward to joining her there some day. Julie Maass

“ Our family extends a Christian Love of a sincere Sympathy to JoAnn's family. While working for Cornerstone Realty which was co-owned by Claudia Beaster, Carol Sarra and myself, JoAnn and her positive attitude was such a great example to the others who worked with us. She taught my grandson, Isaac at Faith Lutheran School, iisted his parent's home and sold a home to our grandson, Craig. So we feel very much of a part of JoAnn's life. She was a blessing to many and now she has received her blessing in her heavenly home.

“ To JoAnn's Family, I am so sorry to hear of her passing. JoAnn always put everyone before herself. She was a very influential person in so many people's lives, especially her family, students and customers. I have many fond memories over the years with her. She was a very special lady and no matter when we'd talk, she made the conversation special like she was. It's always hard to say "Bye" - Just know she is at peace and with all those that went before us. RIP my dear friend.
