

John C. Dauterman

February 13, 1928 - December 12, 2009

John C. Dauterman, 81, of 185 Guindon Blvd., Fond du Lac, died Saturday, December 12, 2009, at St. Agnes Hospital. He was born on February 13, 1928, in Fond du Lac, a son of Elmer E. and Ella O. Draheim Dauterman. He attended St. Peter's Lutheran School and graduated in 1946 from Winnebago Lutheran Academy, Fond du Lac. John was a charter member of Luther Memorial Church, Fond du Lac. John's entire working career was spent at the Fond du Lac Commonwealth Reporter where he started as a Printer Apprentice and was for many years the Composing Room Superintendent. He was affiliated with the International Typographical Union and served with the Wisconsin National Guard. He is survived by his wife, Ruth Kinkel Dauterman and their four children: Greg (Maggie Guenther), and her children, Linda and John Hoepfner; Kathleen (Fred) Dauffenbach, and her children, Steven and Rebecca Sterr; Jeff (Terre Ott) Dauterman, and their four children, Loren, Jered, Lehee, and Jordn, of Antigo, and Carl (Mary Beth Parman) Dauterman, and their twin daughters, Sarah and Karen, of Campbellsport; and a brother, Thomas E. Dauterman of Fond du Lac. In addition to his parents, two brothers, Verner and Roland; along with an infant granddaughter, Laura Beth Dauterman preceded John in death. Burial will be in Rienzi Cemetery after a small family service.

“ *Jack was my mentor and a great teacher. I learned many things from him that I have carried with me throughout my life. He taught me that hard work always pays off. I worked with Jack at the FDL Reporter 84 -89 and he helped teach me the trade of printing.
Jack's family is in my prayers and until we meet again in heaven I have my great memories to keep him alive.*
