“ June was a wonderful person. She was a great member of our Wordsmiths Writers Club in North Fond du Lac. She attended our summer picnics, Christmas parties, and dozens of our meetings. She was a talented writer and painter and a pleasure to know. Rest in peace June.

“ June, I so enjoyed taking you places. It amazed me that, no matter where we went, someone always knew you. When they didn't, you'd introduce yourself as June and I would add, "She was supposed to be 'May' but she didn't want that so she hung on till June 2nd." Everyone would laugh and you'd respond, "true story." It became our routine. We enjoyed reminiscing about old Milwaukee, going to art shows and art meetings. Best memory ever – wrangling those chocolate waffle cones on the hottest day of the summer! Thank you for all the laughs and smiles. Thank you to June's family for sharing your Mom with me.
