

Junius S. Thomas-Dickerson

November 25, 1994 - April 11, 2023

Junius "JuJu" Thomas Dickerson was born on November 25, 1994, to James R.L. Dickerson Jr. and LaShunda Parks. JuJu was the 6th child of Lashunda. He went to grammar school at La Follette, attended Sabish Middle School, and graduated from Fond du Lac High School. He was baptized at Holy Cathedral in Milwaukee, WI, where he attended church.

As a kid, JuJu loved playing basketball. His favorite movie when he was younger was Space Jam. He was spoiled, quiet, and stayed to himself. JuJu was extremely smart. As he got older: he gained a HUGE passion for music, and was very talented when it came to rapping. JuJu was also a good dancer. He was a giver, always there when you needed him, and loved having expensive clothes. He had an undying love for his family.

Junius departed his earthly life and entered his eternal life on April 11, 2023. He was preceded in death by: brother, James Jr.; best friend, Mikey; 3 uncles; and 4 aunts.

He leaves to cherish his memory: mother, LaShunda Parks; Pops, Kennard Parks (Fellow); 14 sisters, Sahara, Terrietta, Marion, Chira, Jasmine, Sommer, Adrienne, Jackie, Wanda, Lakeisha, Nicole, Latrina, Quiana, and Jayva; 2 brothers; Crispin and Kendall; 1 uncle, Willie (Jackie) Thomas; 3 aunts, Sonia, Denise, and Cheryl; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
