“ Kayla, my deepest condolences to you and your family honey. It truly saddens me. Your Dad is at peace and pain free and as hard as it maybe to believe... He is the lucky one, to be in God's Great Kingdom. Love and Prayers, Bonnie

Yea.. at least i dont have to see you in such pain anymore when we'd go back and forth to the hospital. I hope the pain is gone and that you may visit from time to time.. we miss you. Its growing colder , so the Deer Season is in effect. Wish you could all be part of it, cuz i know how much you LOVED doing it. Anyways, you take care up there. I'll see you around, hopefully. <3
