

Lawrence "Larry" A. Luckow

October 29, 1957 - April 13, 2011

Lawrence Allen "Larry" Luckow, 53, joined his Lord in Heaven, surrounded by family and friends after a long fought battle Wednesday, April 13, 2011. He was born on October 29, 1957, a son of Rose Kawleski and Henry Luckow. On July 28, 1984, Larry married the love of his life, Tammy. Larry was employed by Cops for many years in Fond du Lac and Delavan. He was an essential part of Peabody's Interiors for 30 years. He enjoyed spending time with family, a great meal, swimming, cruises, trap and pheasant shoots, volunteering with the Oakfield Conservation Club, camping trips, gambling, and golf. His first pet, Molly, was a wonderful companion. He had a love of craftsmanship and fixing things up, forever a perfectionist. He loved his grandbabies and was known by many as "Lucky Larry", he realized what life was all about – family. Larry was a member of Faith Ev. Lutheran Church. He is survived by his loving wife, Tammy, and their children: Patrick (Kristie) Luckow *, Courtney Luckow (special friend, Lyle Hari), Mandy (Anthony) Liebenow, granddaughters: Taylor and Alexis, Sandra (Rick) Steiner, granddaughter, Emily, Chad Wiskow (special friend, Jessica Kidd), and Melissa (Larry) Diels, and granddaughter, Dominique Wiskow; his siblings: Roger (Cindy) Luckow, Jerry (Sherry) Kawleski, Rick (Helen) Kawleski, George (Char) Kawleski, and Dotty (Dick) Streholski; his favorite mother-in-law, Dolores Tank; two brothers-in-law: Terry and Tim Tank; many nieces, nephews, and his childhood friend, Bill LeMieux. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Sarah Rose; a granddaughter, Cassie Liebenow; by his grandparents, Jacob and Helen Flatoff; his parents, Henry and Rose; his father-in-law, Leonard Tank; Uncle Wally Drewa; a niece and nephew: Rusty Kawleski and Angela Kawleski. The funeral service will be held at noon, on Saturday, April 16, 2011, at Faith Ev. Lutheran Church, 55 North Prairie Road, Fond du Lac, with Pastor Joel Gaertner officiating. The visitation will be on Saturday at church from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service.
