

Lynn C. Thuer

June 9, 2025

Lynn Charles Thuer was born in Detroit, Michigan in 1945 and was adopted as an infant by Joseph and Lorraine Thuer.

After High School, Lynn joined the US Navy and was stationed in California, Hawaii and North Carolina. He was a Navy Corpsman and was especially proud of his service with the Marines. While in North Carolina, he met and married Cindy. They had two daughters.

Lynn had many interests and hobbies, including scuba diving, woodworking, baking lots of cookies and cakes, and especially, fishing. He was a member of the Navy Club and Fishing Has No Boundaries.

Lynn is survived by his wife Cindy, daughters Jodi and husband Tom, Melissa and husband Tobin, grandchildren Devin and fiancé Eddie, Jaedon, Harrison, Spencer, Tristan, and great grandchildren Xander and Nayomi, as well as a large, loved extended family. He also leaves behind his brother Tom and his best friend Charles, who was like a brother to him.

If we could ask Lynn, "What's next?", he would say, "Gone fishing!"

Tribute Wall

DM

“ My condolences. I am Dan Miller and my grandfather was Jake Thuer, Lynn’s uncle. I just happened to be going through my grandparents’ photos today. When I saw Tom and Lynn’s picture I googled Lynn. That is when I discovered he had recently passed. I thought you would enjoy these photos. The dining room table is Joe, Jake, his wife Chloris and the boys. The boxing picture was so classic. In the late 60’s our family stopped at Joe and Lorraine’s while on a family vacation. I hope these memories will help your during your grieving.

Dan Miller - November 26, 2025 at 06:09 PM

CH

“ Charles Hirk lit a candle in memory of Lynn Thuer

Charles Hirk - November 05, 2025 at 10:11 PM