“ Aunt Mamie was an incredible lady with a wonderful sense of humor. I always loved to listen when My mom and Mamie got together to share their great times together. I will miss the warmth of those times.

“ When I was a little boy, growing up in Lomira, Mabel, along with Theresa Weyer, were my earliest babysitters. I must have been a "momma's boy," because every time I saw Mabel walking up the driveway, I would start whining, "Oh, here comes Mabel." My parents teased me about it for years.

I remember her dad, Paul Hefter, custodian at the school in my early grade school years, and brother Lloyd as well.

I believe I last visited with Mabel perhaps three years ago, at Clinton Hoff's funeral in Brownsville. The years she babysat were probably 1945-46.

Where has the time gone?

Deepest sympathy to the family.
