“ Oh my Marge, I was shocked when I read you in the paper today. Everytime I would call you, you always promised we would do breakfast and told me how much you loved me. Even though I knew we couldn't go out I always hoped I would see you one more time and get one more hug.

I can't drive anymore but my daughter, who also loved you, could have taken me to see you if I knew where you were.

We have so many memories, some good some bad.

I will cherish our friendship forever.

Love, Nancy
