

Margery Loehndorf

December 6, 1928 - December 23, 2017

Margery “Marge” E. Loehndorf (Smith) passed away December 23, 2017, at the age of 89, at Hospice Home of Hope in Fond du Lac, WI. Her parents Albert and Dorothy Smith, and her brothers Fulton and Richard preceded her in death. She was succeeded by her husband Al, their five children David (Trina), Steve (Doreen), Mary Burkee (Jim), Mark (Sherrie), and Ann Grygleski (Scott), her sister Jean Hartman (Grant), eleven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Marge was a lower elementary teacher in Racine, Shawano, Madison and Menasha, Wisconsin. She was employed at Prange’s in Fond du Lac, for over fifteen years enjoying most of all her selling of Clinique products. She volunteered many years at the gift shop in St. Agnes Hospital.

As a member of the Covenant United Methodist Church of Fond du Lac, she was instrumental in leading many excursions for parishioners. Places such as Rawhide, The Crane Foundation, Samaritan’s Purse, a Green Dale Publishing Company, and others were her inspiration. Travel was an on-going love: exploring Hawaii, Alaska, Nova Scotia, Belize, Aruba, Great Britain, Switzerland, Australia and numerous other destinations. When not traveling, she loved to walk in her eight acres of woods, looking for wild flowers, deer, wild turkeys, birds and other dwellers of nature.

Marge will be cremated and her ashes will be scattered in Door County and her other favorite places.

On December 30, 2017 an informal memorial by family and friends will be held just prior to a luncheon. Guests are welcome to attend at 11:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Room at Covenant United Methodist Church, 20 North Marr Street, Fond du Lac. In lieu of flowers the family is suggesting a charity of one's choosing or The Heifer Project.
