“As a youth I spent lots of time with Bob and enjoyed Marilyn as “a live wire.” She was a special mother as shown by her family and Bob, my “fruit fly explosion guy” in our science fair.

“I enjoyed playing cards with Marilyn at the Villa. She was engaging and spirited. Will miss her jovial attitude and spryness. At the age of 100 she continued to exhibit all of these traits and was inspiring. May she be granted His Peace and everlasting life. With deepest sympathy, Lynn Wehner
