

Marion "Buzzy" Irma Seibel

January 31, 1922 - December 31, 2017

Marion "Buzzy" I. Seibel, 95, of Fond du Lac, died on Sunday, December 31, 2017, at St. Francis Home.

She was born on January 31, 1922, in Fond du Lac, the daughter of Simon and Irma Spielberg Arthur. On September 11, 1943, she married John Parshall Seibel of Fond du Lac, and moved to the family farm in Unity, Wisconsin. Subsequent moves included Ripon, Fond du Lac, Delaware, Georgia, and St. Germain with a return to Fond du Lac in their later years. Outspoken, with red lipstick and a wardrobe of hats, Buzzy delighted in the company of others. She was active in church and civic groups in every community, often in a leadership role. While in Delaware, she served eight years in the House of Representatives. Marion grew up in a musical family and her love of music reverberates in many of her grandchildren and her great-grandchildren.

Marion is survived by her three children, Susan (Douglass) Day of Milwaukee, John (Sobeya) Seibel of the Dominican Republic, and Richard (Leslie Personett) Seibel of New York; eight grandchildren: Madeleine (Roger Teich) Day, Nicholas (Anya Bernstein) Day, and Molly (Ryan) Peterson, Saschia (Wisem) Chame, John Parshall Seibel, John Paul (Alicia) Seibel, Kurt Seibel and Patrick Seibel; seven great grandchildren: Khalil Chame, Camila Chame, Isaiah Day, Margalo Teich, Estella Peterson, Samuel Day and Henry Peterson.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents and her two brothers: Robert Arthur and James Arthur.

A special thank you to the caring and capable staff of St. Francis Home, and to Pam Behnke, her friend-in-need in her later years.

Memorials may be given to the Fond du Lac Symphonic Band in honor of Marion's love of music.
