April 3, 1958 - December 19, 2023

Marshall L. Christian, 65, of Fond du Lac, passed away peacefully at home on December 19, 2023, with his family at his side.

He was born on April 3, 1958, in Beaver Dam, the son of Donald E. and Bonnie Dinkel Christian. He was a graduate of Randolph High School, Class of 1976. On April 12, 1996, he married Deborah Lewis.

Marshall worked on the family farm for 15 years. He then went on to work at Brenner Tank, where he had made several friends and left a lasting impact in over 25 years working there. He was an active member of Covenant United Methodist Church. Marshall was the type of man who easily made friends and was loved by all who knew him. In his spare time, Marshall enjoyed bowling, having two perfect games, taking care of his lawn, and he loved the Brewers. Traveling to major league stadiums with Deborah was one of his favorite things to do.

He is survived by his wife Deborah, his children: Robert Sullivan of Oshkosh, Caitlin Sullivan (Alex Jameson) of Vancouver, British Columbia and Samantha Sullivan of Seattle, Washington; his grandson Henry, his mother Bonnie Christian of Oshkosh, his brother Mark (Lori) Christian of Oshkosh, his sister Pat (Rick) Bednarek of Princeton, his father and mother-in-law: Robert and Janet Lewis of Fond du Lac, sister-in-law Cheryl Lewis of Fond du Lac, his nieces, and nephews.

Dearest Debbie, No words can describe the loss you and your family must feel with the passing of Marshall. He will be vastly missed by all he loved and befriended, I will especially miss his company on our yearly salmon fishing trips to Algoma Wi. Whenever we would get together those are the first stories that we all relived. Good times were had by all, Fish or no fish it didn't matter. It was always the friendship that mattered. You will be sorely missed but. never forgotten! God Bless. Larry Tobolski and Family
