“ Jim, Terry, Jr and Ivone, my heart is with you. Mary and I were neighbors in the old hood. We often ran into each other and talked about our mothers and their relationship. OMG! I will miss her and our bond. Rest in peace my friend. Now you can talk with those 2 bullheads and maybe work things out!!

“ Mary's quirky sense of humor never failed to make me smile or laugh out loud. She was a hard worker and a good friend. She was my first cousin and a true Abler in every sense of the word. I'm still fighting my cancer and she was a great support to me. Rest well Mary. You fought the good fight.

I met Mary years ago and kind of reconnected several years ago at water aerobics at the YMCA. Mary made the class fun with her outgoing personality. We miss her & know that she is now at peace. RIP Mary.
