“ I knew Bud as a kid visiting him with my grandfather (Walter) when I was really young and my Dad (Dave) later on. He always told us there were no deer around but we usually proved him wrong. He was great guy and will be missed.

“ Dear Family of Merlin: As we share your grief as a congregation, we would remember Merlin for his faithfulness to the church and would further remember that Jesus weeps with those who mourn as he wept with the family of Lazarus.

He weeps and puts His arms around us with these words, "Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted," and by His cross He comforts us for His death once and for all conquered death, and in His rising he paved the way for raising us in His resurrection. Jesus weeps for you and Jesus will sustain you throughout your weeping. As it says in John, "He loved them to the end." John 13
