“Michelle was a wonderful person who always loved her daughter, mother, father and siblings. Our family send our condolences to all of you; may your healing begin with wonderful memories that Michelle brought into your lives. Our family came to know Michelle when she was very young and found out how great she was throughout her life. May God Bless Michelle and her family. The Witkowski-Neal Family

“Michelle your laughter, loving kindness and beautiful smile will be truly and deeply missed. I will for ever cherish and remember the fun times we had growing up and playing at the plain more park together across from where you used to live. And your sister used to come over and join us it was so much fun. The memories will live on for ever in my heart. And this is no good bye as we will meet again. God Bless you Angel.

“ Michelle has been a wonderful, fun-loving friend/ "daughter"! Whenever you'd see her, there was always a smile and a hug! Little things like this make a bad day better and she was always good at making a person smile no matter what kind of mood you were in! God gained an angel when He called her to Him! Sadly missed but always will be remembered! Love you !
