

Mildred "Millie" Schroeder-Riegert

June 15, 1917 - December 11, 2016

Mildred "Millie" Schroeder-Riegert, of North Fond du Lac, passed away at home on Sunday, December 11, 2016, at the remarkable age of 99. She was born on June 15, 1917, in the Town of Richmond, Wisconsin, a daughter of Otto and Hattie Kleberg. On October 15, 1938, she married Arlow Schroeder. They owned and operated a cheese factory in Antigo, along with a car dealership in Shawano. After moving to Fond du Lac, she continued to work at various businesses and assisted Arlow with his trucking business until his death in 1987. She later met and married Raymond Riegert on November 26, 1994 in North Fond du Lac. Millie enjoyed gardening, cooking, traveling, and reading. She was greatly admired for her green thumb, as she could work miracles with nearly any plant. Even in her later years, she could whip up her famous banana cream pie on a moment's notice. Mildred's survivors include her husband, Raymond Riegert of North Fond du Lac; a son, Donald (Ruth) Schroeder of Oshkosh; a daughter, Janet (Jim) Koestering of Lakeville, Minnesota; grandchildren; Cheryl Schroeder, Shelley Schroeder, Sara (Colby) Cornell, and Ashley (Andrew) Dearth; great-grandchildren: Alisha (Jon) Reimer, Chloey Schroeder, Kennedy, Caleb, and Millie Cornell, and Elliana Dearth; and one sister, Bernice Beversdorf of Shawano. She was preceded in death by her parents, Otto and Hattie Kleberg; and her husband, Arlow Schroeder. At Mildred's request, cremation has taken place. Inurnment will be in Rienzi Cemetery. Memorials may be directed to Heartland Hospice.
